

YELLOW RIBBON ART EXHIBITION TRAVELS TO ATTRACTION FOR THE FIRST TIME

S'pore Discovery Centre to showcase more than 45 pieces of original artwork by inmates and ex-offenders

Picture Opportunities:

- GOH Madam Halimah Yacob to launch the event by painting on giant starfish handmade by inmates

1 Art pieces created by inmates and ex-offenders, which illustrate their rehabilitation journey filled with regret, struggle and hope for the future, is on display at S'pore Discovery Centre (SDC) from 2 Dec 07 to 1 Jan 08.

2 Entitled "Journey of Love & Hope" (爱与希望之旅), this is the first time that the art pieces are exhibited at an attraction. On display are paintings, art pieces using recycled items such as newspapers and bottle caps, and women's crafts. The exhibition will also showcase drawings by child beneficiaries of the Yellow Ribbon fund.

3 Guest-of-Honour, MP for Jurong GRC Mdm Halimah Yacob will spend a meaningful afternoon with beneficiaries of the Yellow Ribbon Fund, consisting of children and their families, for some fun learning. The children will be attending recycled art workshop conducted by volunteers, and all will be treated to a 3D movie, lunch and entertaining exhibitions.

4 Held exclusively at SDC, this educational exhibition will inspire visitors to show their acceptance for ex-offenders and their families.

5 Your reporter/photographer/camera crew are invited to the launch at:

Venue: S'pore Discovery Centre, 510 Upper Jurong Road

Date: 2 Dec 07 (Sunday)

Time: 12.30pm-2.30pm (Programme attached)

Please RSVP with Ms Lim Chui Kiang at 6668-0364/9792-5943 or chuikiang_lim@sdc.com.sg by 1 Dec 07. Doorstop interview with Madam Halimah Yacob can be arranged.
